

Innsbruck.<sup>1</sup>

Lodged at the White Cross.<sup>2</sup> Arrived in the evening of Friday the ...<sup>3</sup>
 Count Spauer,<sup>4</sup> his Countess, and his Mama.

- [5] Count Leopold Königl,<sup>5</sup> his Countess.

Baron Cristani.<sup>6</sup> †

Baron Ensenberg.<sup>7</sup>

Herr Haindl, violinist.<sup>8</sup>

H: Falck.<sup>9</sup> Organist, his wife and his son.

- [10] H: Schauer,<sup>10</sup> hunting horn player with the Bigazi Regiment.<sup>11</sup>

Landlord and wife and daughter and son.

In the afternoon set off to Steinach:<sup>12</sup> Tuesday

Midday at Sterzing,<sup>13</sup> Brixsen<sup>14</sup> at night: Wednesday

Midday at Atzwang,<sup>15</sup> Botzen at night: Thursday

- [15] Botzen.<sup>16</sup>

Lodged at The Sun,<sup>17</sup> arrived the ...<sup>18</sup>

Herr Antoni von Gummer,<sup>19</sup> his wife.

H: Kurzweil.<sup>20</sup> Violinist

H: Stockhammer,<sup>21</sup> his esteemed mother.

- [20] H: Stückler.<sup>22</sup> Landlord.

H: Semelbrock<sup>23</sup>

His accountant H: Schiess.

Set off on Saturday afternoon, at night in Neumarckt<sup>24</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Innsbruck.

<sup>2</sup> BD: The inn "Zum weisen Kreuz" still exists today.

<sup>3</sup> Empty space.

<sup>4</sup> "S": Ex: H: Graf Spaur". BD: Johann Nepomuk, Graf Spaur (1724-1793), military commander [Burggraf] of Tyrol.

<sup>5</sup> BD: Leopold Franz, Graf Künigl (1726-1813), vice-president of the government of Tyrol. Cf. No. 0150/5.

<sup>6</sup> BD: Cf. No. 0149/12. Cristani: members of this family mentioned in Nos. 0149/12; 0151/6, 28-30; 0152/14 ff.

<sup>7</sup> BD: Kassian Ignaz, Baron [Freiherr] von Enzenberg, from 1763 president of the regional parliament in Tyrol, actual privy counsellor. His wife was a confidante of Maria Theresia.

<sup>8</sup> BD: Franz Sebastian Haindl (1727-1812), also active as composer.

<sup>9</sup> BD: Georg Paul Falck († 1778).

<sup>10</sup> BD: Franz Joseph Schauer (1720-1790), later court musician in Munich.

<sup>11</sup> BD: The Migazzi regiment, based in Innsbruck.

<sup>12</sup> BD: Innsbruck to Steinach: 26 km.

<sup>13</sup> BD: Steinach to Sterzing: 27 km. Sterzing to Bressanone: 30 km.

<sup>14</sup> Brixen, Bressanone, today in Italy.

<sup>15</sup> BD: Bressanone to Atzwang: 26 km. Atzwang to Bolzano: 15 km.

<sup>16</sup> Bozen, Bolzano, today in Italy.

<sup>17</sup> BD: Inn "Zur Sonne", demolished in 1873.

<sup>18</sup> Empty space.

<sup>19</sup> BD: Anton von Gummer: the family belonged to the financial aristocracy of the Tyrol.

<sup>20</sup> BD: Kurzweil: a violinist from Königgratz, son of a cook in Bolzano.

<sup>21</sup> BD: Stockhammer: a well-based family in Bolzano.

<sup>22</sup> BD: Stickler? Cf. No. 0152/20.

<sup>23</sup> BD: Mozart probably chooses to misspell "Semmelrock"; Semmelbrock = bread roll crumb.

<sup>24</sup> BD: Neumarkt = Egna, Italy; 23 km from Bolzano.

Sunday midday Trent, at night at Roveredo.<sup>25</sup>

[25] Roveredo:

Lodged at the Rose:<sup>26</sup> arrived the ...<sup>27</sup>
District Governor Nicolas Cristani<sup>28</sup> and his wife.
His cousin, Canon Cristani.<sup>29</sup>
The brother of the District Governor.

[30] Il sig: Conte Septimo Ladron.<sup>30</sup>
Conte Domenico Ladron.<sup>31</sup>
Baron Bizzini,<sup>32</sup> and his wife, and his son and...<sup>33</sup>
Baron Todesci.<sup>34</sup>
Doctor Bridi.<sup>35</sup>

[35] Post-secretary Chiusoelle.<sup>36</sup>
H: von Cosmi,<sup>37</sup> wife, and 3 sisters, and mother.
3 H: Vesti.<sup>38</sup>
H: Rosmini.<sup>39</sup>
H: Pilati.<sup>40</sup>

[40] Music director Abbé Pasqui.<sup>41</sup>
sig: Angelo Negri.<sup>42</sup>
Landlord, landlady Luz, his daughter Rosa, his son, the little Jackerl.

---

<sup>25</sup> Rovereto, today in Italy.

<sup>26</sup> BD: Inn “Zur Rose” no longer exists.

<sup>27</sup> Empty space.

<sup>28</sup> “Greis-haubtmann”. BD: Nicolo Cristani, regional governor, cf. No. 0152/18 ff.

<sup>29</sup> BD: Giovanni Andrea Cristani, actually uncle of the governor.

<sup>30</sup> BD: Max Septimus, Graf Lodron (1727-1796), cathedral canon, dean of Villa Lagarina.

<sup>31</sup> BD: Dominik Anton, Graf Lodron (1728-1806), Imperial colonel [k.k. Oberst], distinguished himself in the Seven Years’ War. Both Max and Dominik were brothers of Nikolaus Sebastian, Graf Lodron, Chief Royal Marshal [Obersthofmarschall] in Salzburg.

<sup>32</sup> BD: Gian Giulio Pizzini (1719-1779), “barone” from 1754.

<sup>33</sup> Empty space.

<sup>34</sup> BD: Giovanni Battista Todeschi (1730-1799), “barone”, mayor of Rovereto.

<sup>35</sup> BD: Probably Antonio Giacomo Bridi (1721-1799), uncle of the Giuseppe Antonio Bridi who sang in a private performance of Idomeneo in Vienna in 1786 and himself a “good clavier player”. Giuseppe represented the firm Bridi, Parisi & Co. in Vienna.

<sup>36</sup> BD: Perhaps a relative of the “Chiusolis” mentioned in Nos. 0034/56; 0319/27. The latter was probably Dominicus Chiusole de Clusulis († 1775), Doctor of theology and law, Consistory Councillor [Konsistorialrat] in Salzburg from 1742. Member of a Tyrolean noble family.

<sup>37</sup> BD: Giovanni Battista de Cosmi. Cf. No. 0152/33-34.

<sup>38</sup> BD: Actually “Festi”. Gottardo Antonio (1716-1775), Giuseppe Antonio (1727-1771), Francesco Simone (1718-1779), sons of the Rovereto patrician Gottardo Festi.

<sup>39</sup> BD: Not identified.

<sup>40</sup> BD: Carlo Antonio Pilati (1733-1802).

<sup>41</sup> BD: Domenico Pasqui (1722-1780), music director at the church of San Marco, once in seminary in Salzburg.

<sup>42</sup> BD: Not identified.